

CYPPC Child Protection Directory

Roles & Responsibilities

Childrens' Hearings

Every week there are about 10 hearing sessions where the tribunals, each made up of 3 Panel members, make decisions about children who are or may be in need of compulsory measures of supervision. The Panel members base their decisions on input from the child and family as well as the range of professional agencies who have knowledge of the child's circumstances.