

CYPPC Child Protection Directory

Roles & Responsibilities

Initial Referral Discussion

An (IRD) is a stage in the process of planning and delivering services to protect children and young people. It occurs at the beginning of the process and the aim is to ensure that relevant professionals are brought together to share information, consider the circumstances and needs of the child and plan what action is appropriate.