

CYPPC Child Protection Directory

Roles & Responsibilities

Unborn Baby Meetings

Multi-agency meetings called by social work or health staff to plan for the care of a child before it is born where there are concerns about the future safety or welfare of the baby. It ensures the co-ordinate of the provision of support services after the child's birth.